fire prevention codes in the nation, are used by most U.S. cities, counties and states.

Building safety codes provide safeguards to protect the public from natural disasters that can occur all across the country, such as snowstorms, hurricanes, tornadoes, wildland fires, and earthquakes. Building safety codes also work to minimize other potential building catastrophes.

Building Safety Week, sponsored by the International Code Council Foundation, is an opportunity to educate the public. It is a perfect time to increase public awareness of the role building safety and fire prevention officials, local and state building departments, and federal agencies play in the first line of defense to protect the public.

defense to protect the public.

This year's theme, "You Can Be a Part of Building Safety Week," encourages all Americans to raise our awareness of building safety, and to take appropriate steps to ensure that the places where we live, work, play and learn are safe. Countless lives have been saved because of the building safety codes adopted and enforced by local and state agencies.

This year, as we observe Building Safety Week, I ask all Americans to consider projects to improve building safety at home and in the community, and to recognize the local building safety and fire prevention officials and the important role that they play in public safety.

I am proud to have this opportunity to recognize building safety and fire prevention officials today and urge all people to participate in Building Safety Week activities and to commence efforts to improve building safety.

RECOGNIZING THE LATIN BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Latin Business Association (LBA) for its 28 years of performing exceptional work in promoting business growth, advocacy and education for the Latino community.

Established in 1976 as a private nonprofit organization, the LBA is the nation's largest Latino business entity with an active membership of 1,200 and overall outreach to Latino business owners. LBA's membership and outreach efforts enable it to fulfill its mission of being the fastest and most effective leader of Latino business opportunities in the market place. In addition, the LBA helps Latino-owned businesses grow by providing business-training workshops and developing effective advocacy programs.

More than a leader in the business world, the LBA transcends political, cultural, and language barriers that impact our nation's economic balance. As a result of the LBA's hard work, Latino businesses, executives, and entrepreneurs are not only nationally recognized, but have the opportunity to influence the nation's economic public policy.

As the Latino population continues to grow, the development of new corporations and entrepreneurial businesses will jumpstart our economy. I believe the LBA will be at the forefront among strong and influential business organizations offering support and direction to the Latino business community.

Tonight's 28th Annual Sol Business Awards Gala is a testament to the emerging significance and influence of the Latino business community. I am proud to recognize the LBA, its Board of Directors, and its members for 28 years of successfully generating business opportunities, providing advocacy, and educating the Latino community for business growth. The LBA has distinguished itself as an exceptional leader in Latino business development and I wish it much longevity and prosperity.

COMMENDING MARK PEPLOWSKI

HON. JON C. PORTER

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. PORTER. Mr. Speaker, it is my great honor that I stand before you today to recognize the achievements of a fine college professor, Mark Peplowski, in Henderson, NV. He has dedicated himself to the service of Henderson students through his loyalty to the Community College of Southern Nevada. Beginning with his appointment as an adjunct professor in 1976 he has been determined to make Henderson, NV a better place by dedicating his career to Community College of Southern Nevada.

During his career as an adjunct professor and a professor, he has created programs to bring his students into the political world by providing ways for them to travel to our Nation's Capitol to work and meet with the many leaders of our Nation. He has been there as a mentor and counselor to his students in helping them accomplish their career goals in politics.

Mark Peplowski has also had a long-term goal of creating a Grass Roots Institute of Politics at the Henderson campus to give students from all backgrounds a chance to participate in and understand the political process with the opportunity to get involved in government

I commend Mark Peplowski for his dedication to his students and his loyalty to his country. He has demonstrated that he is an effective teacher and has continuously taught his students the meaning of good government through his example and dedication to learning.

SPIRITUAL LEADER, BLESSED PRESENCE

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, one of Michigan's finest citizens recently passed away. I have been searching for the right words to express my high esteem for Bishop Kenneth E. Untener. Having just read the editorial in the Saginaw News of Saginaw, Michigan, I feel that they have expressed well the love in which the Bishop was held by those whose lives he had touched.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Saginaw News editorial be reprinted in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

[From the Saginaw News, Mar. 31, 2004] SPIRITUAL LEADER, BLESSED PRESENCE

For the better part of a quarter century, Bishop Kenneth E. Untener served the Saginaw Diocese with humility, humor and unflinching devotion. His faith and commitment to God are unquestioned. Yet Untener's fidelity to the welfare of the region's people—people of all faiths, creeds and colors—was an equally profound reflection of his humanity and ability to lead.

His death this weekend of leukemia leaves a deep void in the Saginaw Valley, and not just among Catholics. The bishop's work to improve the community, to unite its interconnected and diverse components, was tireless. He was an inspiring presence within the region's religious and civic communities.

As former Saginaw Mayor Henry Marsh, his friend and compatriot in community affairs put it, Saginaw cannot replace him. His outreach brought hundreds of the region's leaders together via his monthly "bishop's breakfast" meetings. He was active in Saginaw County Vision 2020, Habitat for Humanity and myriad youth initiatives. He abolished perceived barriers among individuals and between groups.

There is no doubt Bishop Untener was taken, in the transitory, earthly way, too soon. It was only a few weeks ago that he announced his battle with cancer. He was 66.

The church, of course, will name a successor to lead the 140,000-member, 11-county Saginaw Diocese. The community will welcome the next bishop, and Untener's successor will embark on a path to leave his own mark.

Yet Untener's legacy will survive through his civic example and in his acclaimed religious writings. His "Little Books" are inspirational guides used by Catholics and non-Catholics alike. The level of praise from within the religious community, from clergy of all faiths, is a testament to Untener's bridge-building skills. His outreach sometimes rankled members of his own faith, as in his support for female priests, as contradictory to traditional church doctrine.

As a man living among us, however, Bishop Untener's humble march toward unity serves as an example we all would wisely strive to follow.

The community was blessed by Bishop Untener's presence for nearly a quarter century. The people he touched are forever changed; the community he served was changed for the better, too.

IN HONOR OF ALVIN "SAM" SHRADER

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Alvin "Sam" Shrader's dedication to public service as the Breakfast Rotary Club of Camarillo recognizes him for 60 years of perfect Rotary Club attendance.

As my colleagues are aware, the object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service in all aspects of one's life—business, personal and community. Alvin Shrader epitomizes that ideal.

Alvin Shrader and his wife, Avis (or Suzy as she's better known), will celebrate 70 years of marriage this June. They have three wonderful children, including my lovely wife, Janice. Alvin Shrader is as dedicated to his wife, children, eight grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren
